

Delaware Duck Stamp Program and Contest

Exhibition Agreement

WHEREAS, the undersigned has been informed that these works of art will be exhibited at the Delaware Agricultural Museum following the contest; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned has been informed that there will not be insurance available to compensate the owner for loss or damage to the item listed above in the event their damage or destruction or to protect the governmental agencies or their agents against liability in the event of accidental or negligent damaging of said items; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned recognizes the possible risks of loss as noted above and recognizes that he/she is foregoing any right he/she may have to recover for damages to the items listed above under certain circumstances;

NOW, THEREFORE, the undersigned specifically agrees to loan to the State of Delaware, on the request of the Delaware Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Division of Fish and Wildlife, the item listed above and agrees that the item may be exposed as works of art in the public building of the Delaware Agricultural Museum at the discretion of the custodians of the building and that the loaning of such works of the art shall be without any pay or rental to the undersigned and shall be with the specific understanding that the State of Delaware does not undertake to insure such works of art in any way whatsoever and does not insure itself or its agents against possible negligence in the damaging of such works of art. It is further understood, however, that the undersigned may request the return and repossession of any one or all of the items listed above on reasonable notice at any time.

Artist

Witness

Date: _____